Dear Manasseh,

On behalf of the City of Richardson, I wanted to write to thank you for your recent contribution and support to the Network of Community Ministries (Network) for its new facility and operations. Network has been a close and dependable partner for those in need in Richardson, which is why I felt it necessary to add my gratitude for your generous contribution.

The City and Network have had a long-running relationship over the years, and the City depends on it and other organizations to assist individuals with financial and other daily living needs, especially during times of crisis. The 2019 tornado event, and the more recent COVID-19 crisis, have been pinnacle examples of the service Network provides and the value it adds to the community.

I look forward to seeing you in September during Network's opening ceremony events and please know the City Council and I very much appreciate your support to Network and its mission.

Sincerely,
